

Brig. Joe Curian

Group President – Operations

BGS Global Hospital, Bangalore

Commissioned in the army at the age of 19, Brig. Joe Curian has seen active operations during two wars with Pakistan. He decided to seek pre-mature retirement while he was the Head of faculty in the prestigious College of Defence Management. He has held appointments as CEO of Apollo Hospital Chennai, Indraprastha Apollo Hospital Delhi, Hinduja Mumbai and Raheja Mumbai before joining as the Group President of Global Hospitals. With over 15 years at the top level in Hospital Management, he is probably the most experienced in India.

He has been associated with all reputed Institutions that are involved with Training in Health Care and Hospital Management in India. He contributes regularly to Media and Organizations involved with the domain of Health Care Delivery. His latest passion is setting up new Hospitals and turning-around of Hospitals that are sick.