

Dr Celia Skinner

Dr Celia Skinner qualified from the University of Birmingham in 1987 and trained in sexual health and HIV medicine at St Mary's Hospital in London. Since 1995 she has been a consultant in sexual health and HIV medicine at Barts and the London NHS Trust (BLT). She has combined her clinical practice with clinical leadership since 1999 and is now Divisional Director for Regional Services. She has been instrumental in developing the service transformation programme using Lean technology at BLT and has direct experience of strategic implementation and operational delivery.