

Dr.Karanjekar's Short Bio-profile

Dr.Karanjekar is currently Associate Vice President at Wockhardt hospital Mumbai a JCI accredited hospital. He is a medical graduate from Pune and further he acquired training in orthopadeics.He did his hospital Administration & Business Management from Tata Institute of Social Studies, he has worked with few of the major hospitals in countries like Fortis (Heart & Super Specialty Mohali/ Chandigad), Lilavati Hospital-Mumbai, Tata Memorial Hospital –Mumbai & Krishna Heart Institute Hospital –Ahmedabad.He was CEO of Dr.D.Y.Patil hospital & Medical College at Navi Mumbai. He has more that 20 years administrative experience at various positions. He is faculty at Mumbai University & other management training institution and also on the advisory board of Management institutes IIMR-Jaipur and Symbiosis College Pune. He is also member of American College of Healthcare Executive and member of International Liaison committee as representative from India. He is a lead accessor of NABH and presently he has been entrusted with the with responsibilities of promotion the quality in healthcare he is a chairman of (NBQB) (National Board of Quality promotion) an arm of QCI (Quality Council of India).he has delivered number of healthcare management lectures at various conferences in India & Aboard Speciality in Dubai, Taiwan and Bangkok.