

Mr. V. C. Sharma, CMD, HSCC

Mr. V. C. Sharma has a rich and diversified experience of more than 33 years in implementation of infrastructure sector projects and is Electrical Engineer by profession.

Mr. Sharma is presently the Chairman and Managing Director of HSCC (India) Ltd., a Mini Ratna Company under the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare. HSCC is a premier consultancy, project management organisation in the area of development of healthcare engineering infrastructure and is working on important Healthcare Engineering infrastructure projects. Mr. Sharma, during his career, has worked on many prestigious assignments in different countries in Middle East, Central Asia, Africa & South East Asian countries etc. He has widely travelled around the globe.

He has valuable experience of working with organisations like RITES & EPI, where he handled diverse nature of projects in infrastructural sector funded by Governmental agencies, ADB, World Bank, AfDB etc. His experience includes Management of interdisciplinary projects covering Power, Railways, Urban Transport, Pipelines, Airports, Housing complexes & Hospitals etc.

Before joining HSCC, he served with distinction as Chief Specialist for a leading Japanese firm in Tashkent through RITES.

Mr. V. C. Sharma has been recently conferred with the Bhartiya Shiromani Puruskar by Institute of Economic Studies for enhancing the image of India and "Gold Medal" to HSCC (I) Ltd.